

The basics of user measurement and wheelchair set up

This workshop, presented by Margaret Andrew and Ben Cox, gave information on measurements required, and how to accurately take these, to enable successful provision of a basic wheelchair. Delegates were given full opportunity to practice their measurement skills and to refine their measurement techniques.